3. Board Chair Report: Randy wanted to take the opportunity to say how proud he is of the staff.
4. QI Report and review/approval:
The QI report will be deferred one more month to January when Rosie will be returning from maternity leave.
5. Consent Agenda: A motion by Michele Talley with a second from Anthony Gonzalez to approve both the Charity Care/Bad Debt and Vouchers as presented. Motion carried.
6. Standing Committees:
 - a) Finance:
Reported that we started January out on down months but now every department is up. Reviewed the graphs in Athena to show charges and collections. The AR days are now lower and we now have a positive cash balance, since 2001 there has always been a warrant line (negative cash flow).
 - b) Building & Grounds:
Anthony pointed out the damage and repairs (plumbing, roof) still needed for the aging facility. Recent inspections by JCI were made in the kitchen. Also possible options for upcoming snow removal were discussed.
 - c) Personnel: None
7. Old Business:
 - a) None

8. New Business:

a) DZA Engagement for 2021 Audit

The same letter per usual presented. Audit $26,750, Medicare filing $10,500. Engagement Agreement.

A motion from Michele Talley with a second from Anthony Gonzalez to approve the DZA Engagement Agreement as presented. Motion carried.

b) Letter from Grant County Commissioners

Cindy Carter in the Finance Committee wanted to decrease the warrant line for QVMC. It previously was set at $4 million and it has now been decreased to $2 million,

9. Departmental Reports: None
